

Annual Awards Information

WCWDCA recognizes the achievements of its Weimaraners and club members each year.

Annual deadline: January 15

Submit accomplishments earned from January 1 through December 31 of the immediately preceding calendar year.

ELIGIBILITY

The principal owner of the dog - the person with whom the dog resides - must be a WCWDCA voting member in good standing. Temporary residence with a member co-owner does not satisfy the residency requirement.

The principal owner must meet one of these volunteer requirements during the award year: volunteer at least four hours at one WCWDCA event, or volunteer at two WCWDCA events for any amount of time. Examples include training days, agility trials, field trials, ratings tests, specialties, committee work, and event hospitality.

VERIFICATION

Provide documentation for every achievement. Acceptable verification includes AKC, WCA, or other certificates; AKC Awards or WCA magazine listings; and the dog's AKC title progression or awards record. The applicant is responsible for making sure the submitted information matches the requested engraving.

RECOGNITIONS

Recognitions include all AKC titles; Best in Show and Group placements; AKC final Top Ten listings, except Derby, which recognizes any Top Ten placement during the year; all WCA titles, including ratings, versatile awards, and BROM; and other worthy achievements. Honorable mentions may include Futurity or Maturity placements, NAVHDA achievements, foreign championships, American Field results, and BISS.

SPECIAL AND MEMBER AWARDS

Ann Kepler Award: WCWDCA's outstanding show dog. Competitive points are based on the total number of Weimaraners defeated, including wins in Class and Opposite Sex. Complete the Ann Kepler section if the dog is in contention.

Coors Challenge Award: WCWDCA's outstanding field dog for the year. Complete the Coors Challenge section if the dog is in contention.

Member Awards: Nominations may be submitted for the Club Service Award, Good Sportsmanship Award, or Bob Milko Junior Achievement Award. The junior award recognizes a club member under age 18 for accomplishments in the ring or field and/or service to the Weimaraner community.

PLAQUES AND SUBMISSION

Members earning multiple recognitions in Agility, Obedience, or Field may request a larger plaque, a new title plate, or both. For dog awards, submit one application per dog. For a member-award-only nomination, use a separate copy and enter N/A in dog-specific fields. Recipients are recognized at the February club membership meeting and on the WCWDCA website. Physical awards are distributed at the June summer meeting.
